Memberships in Professional Organizations
Policy Number: 230.0100.79

POLICY

Professional staff members are encouraged to belong to organizations of which objectives and interests are applicable to the teaching and/or administrative responsibilities of College staff. Staff members belonging to such groups -- whether at the local, state, or national level -- may be given time off to attend meetings and to participate in their professional activities.

The President is authorized by the Board to determine and approve institutional type memberships in organizations of which objectives and interests are applicable to the teaching and/or administrative responsibilities of College staff. Such selected membership fees shall be paid by the College.
