

COUGAR BOOKSTORE

Dear Student,

The Cougar Bookstore would like to welcome you to Western Nebraska Community College. Listed below is information on what you need to know about buying college textbooks, and ensuring you get the right books.

- Students will only be allowed to charge textbooks to their WNCC student account if they have enough verified Financial Aid remaining after all tuition, fees, room and board have been covered. The College has set a limit on the amount qualifying students can charge. Students may charge textbooks in the amount of their remaining Financial Aid for the applicable semester, but not more than $600.00 per semester. Qualifying students may charge books to their student accounts beginning two (2) weeks before the first day of the semester and up to two (2) weeks after. A WNCC voucher is required for Sidney and Alliance student to purchase books with Financial Aid funds at The Book Corner in Sidney or the Crystal Garden in Alliance. The college bookstore accepts cash, check, Visa, MasterCard and Discover, Sidney and Alliance will accept Visa and MasterCard only.
- Bring your class schedule with you to make sure you are getting books for the correct course number and section number. Courses may have similar names or multiple sections, but different instructors and books.
- If you need to return a textbook for a refund, be sure to keep your sales receipt. You have two weeks from the start of classes to return books with the receipt for a refund. New books must be unopened, unmarked, unread and the SHRINK-WRAP cannot be removed or broken.

Don't hesitate to ask the Bookstore staff for assistance, we are here to help you find the right textbooks for your classes.

Sincerely,
