POLICY

For the protection of students, staff, and the general public, the Nebraska Legislature has determined that certain topics may be discussed in executive session. Any Board member who feels that the Board is not conforming to these topics as outlined in the law will so notify the other members before making a public accusation.

Absent questions of legality, the Board recognizes that the public good requires the maintenance of absolute secrecy regarding matters discussed in executive session. If any member of the Board cannot commit himself/herself to respect the integrity of any given executive session or portion thereof, he/she will absent himself/herself from such session.
