Special Training and Apprenticeship Programs
Policy Number: 610.2000.79

POLICY

Special training programs may be provided where specific job opportunities are available or when various area agencies request apprenticeship or similar training. These programs, usually of a short duration, will be tailored to fit the needs of a specific community business, industry, profession, or group, and shall terminate when known needs have been satisfied. The training site will be determined at the time the request is compiled.
